FOUR NEW VOLUMES OF THE MUSICIANS LIBRARY

Price, each, in heavy paper, cloth back, $1.50; in full cloth gilt, $2.50

FELIX MENDELSSOHN THIRTY PIANO COMPOSITIONS

Edited by Dr. Percy Goetschius, with preface by Daniel Gregory Mason

THIS volume contains those works which present the composer's characteristics in the most striking manner, and it also includes those which have become in the best sense popular. The editing includes useful hints upon interpretation, besides revising and accurately defining the phrasing and notation.

WOLFGANG AMADEUS MOZART TWENTY PIANO COMPOSITIONS

Edited by CARL REINECKE

THIS volume contains, besides a selection from the sonatas and fantasies, many of the composer's graceful shorter pieces, edited and fingered by the greatest of living Mozart authorities. Mozart's genius found a congenial medium of expression in writing for the instrument upon which he himself was a virtuoso. A discerning introduction (in German and English), a fine portrait, and a full bibliography are features of the volume.

Anthology of FRENCH PIANO MUSIC

(Two Volumes.) Edited by ISIDOR PHILIPP

Volume I. Early Composers.

Volume II. Modern Composers

THESE two volumes constitute a comprehensive collection of French piano music, which covers the ground from the beginning of the 17th century down to the present day. From the harpsichord school, so admirably developed in France, a wealth of interesting and beautiful compositions has been chosen; and from the rich treasure-house of modern French works has been selected a group of brilliant and compelling pieces by Faure, Franck, Saint-Saëns, Debussy, and others equally gifted. Each volume contains a preface, with bibliographical notes in French with an English translation, and a group of portraits of prominent composers.

PRESS NOTES OF THE MUSICIANS LIBRARY

Boston Herald:—The typography, engraving, paper, and general appearance of the volumes are highly creditable to the liberality and taste of the publishers.

Buffalo News:—Too much praise cannot be given the volumes nor the publishers who have gotten out such beautiful editions, and what is greatly to the point at prices within the reach of all.

The Book Buyer, N. Y.:—The style and make-up of these volumes leaves nothing to be desired.

Chicago Tribune:—This series, when completed, will form a collection of what is best and representative in song and piano literature.

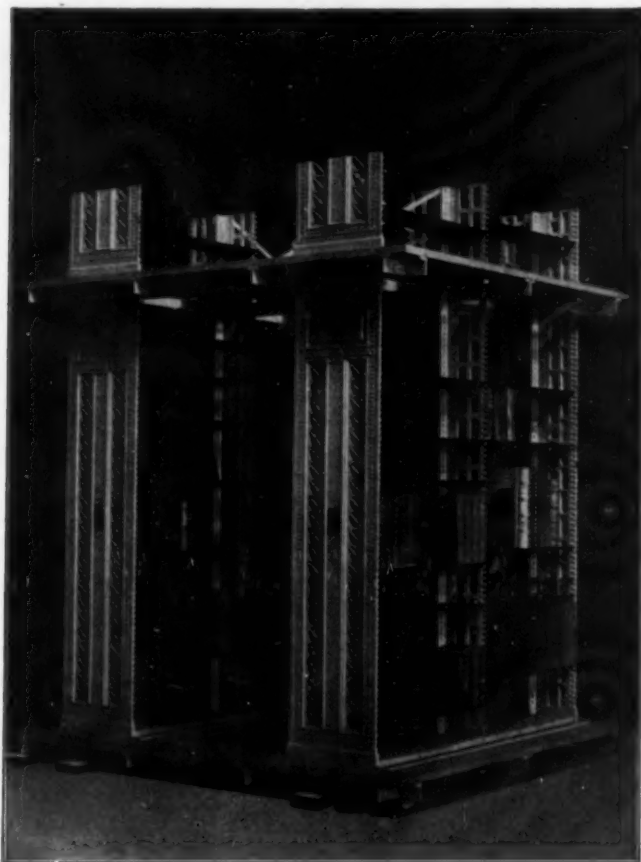

Cleveland Leader:—Lovers of music have occasion to bless the Oliver Ditson Company, of Boston, every time a volume of its Musicians Library comes out.

Columbus (O.) Post:—Each volume is carefully edited by an authority on the subject, who is at the same time an enthusiast.

Denver Post:—A most notable addition to the musical publications of the day, and will doubtless be highly appreciated by musicians.

Kansas City Journal:—The typography, engraving, accuracy, and artistic ensemble of the Musicians Library are of the highest excellence.

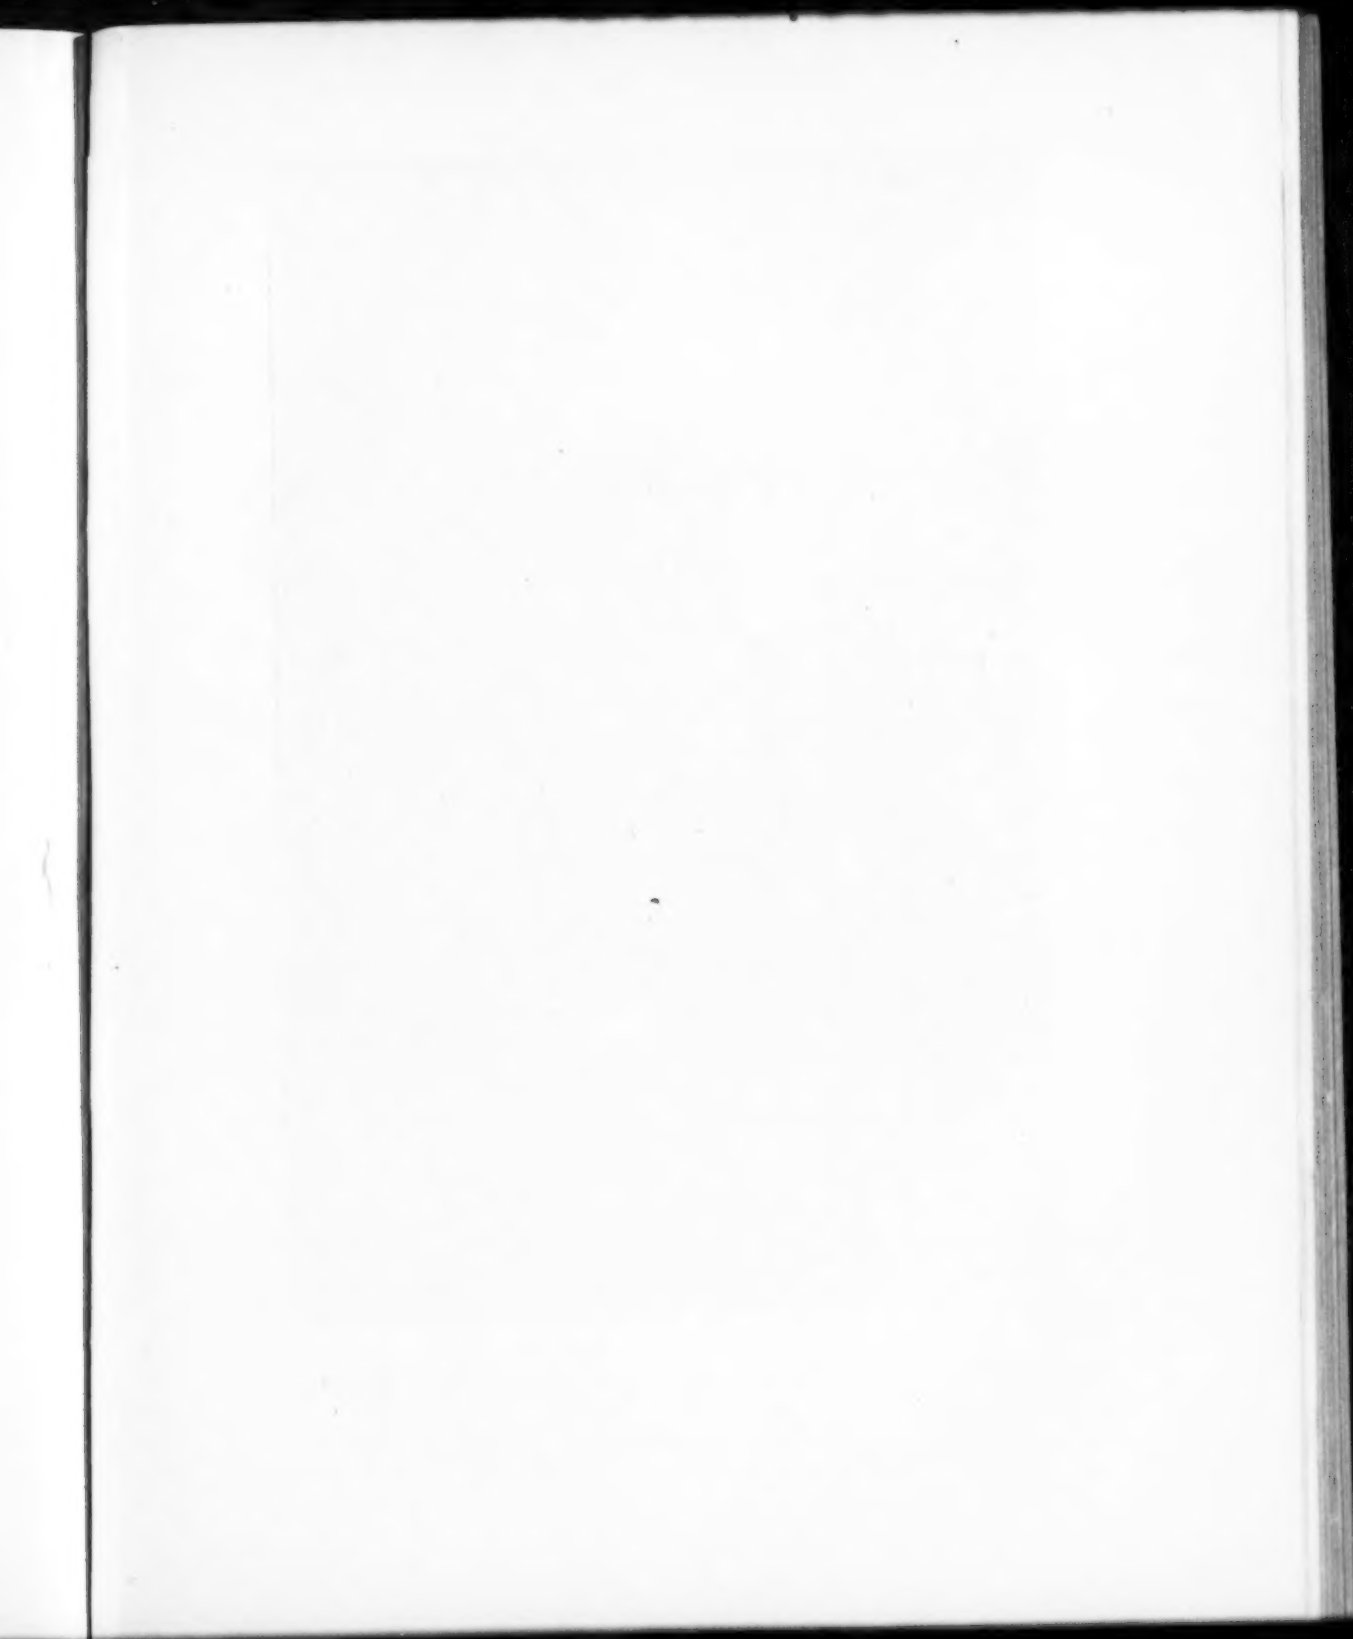

Mail and Express, N. Y.:—The volumes show conscientious adherence to high musical ideals.
